Record Flight By Fighter

From Honolulu to New York in 14 Hours, 31 Minutes; Crew Was Worried

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 — (AP)—Lt. Col. Robert E. Thacker of El Centro, Calif., said today at the end of his 4,978-mile non-stop flight from Honolulu in an army P-82 fighter:

"There was nothing heroic about it. Please don't make a hero out of me."

Then he and his co-pilot, Lt. John M. Ard of Inglewood, Calif., reviewed their 14 hours and 33 minutes flying their plane, the Betty Jo, the longest distance ever covered by a fighter plane.

Both were tired, their eyes blood-shot, their faces red and wind-beaten.

"We made the coast from Honolulu in seven hours," said Col. Thacker, "and we were really going down the road. Our best speed was 450 miles an hour."

They had no mechanical pilot he said, and had to lug her themselves by hand controls all the way.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—(AP)—The Betty Jo, Army P-82 fighter, completed a 4,978-mile non-stop flight from Honolulu at 11:06 a. m. (EST) (10:06 a. m. CST) today in approximately 14 hours and 31 minutes.

Just two minutes and 44 seconds after the twin-engine fighter roared out of a blue sky over LaGuardia field, it made a perfect landing—at 11:08:44 a. m. (10:08 a. m. CST). It took off from Hickam Field, Honolulu, at 8:35 p. m. (EST) (7:35 p. m. CST) last night.

Emergency equipment lined the runway of the big airport as the Betty Jo zoomed in, prepared for an emergency landing.

The pilot, Lt. Col. Robert E Thacker of El Centro, Calif., and co-pilot, Lt. John M. Ard of Inglewood, Calif., won a daring bid against 65-mile headwinds over Pennsylvania and dangerously low fuel tanks to reach their New York objective.

"We're going to take a shot at New York," they said by radio over western Pennsylvania.

Hit Their Mark

An hour later they hit their mark.

Aviation and army officials had "sweat out" the Betty Jo's flight eastward from Chicago when her crew began to worry about rapidly draining fuel.

Airports along the route were alerted and at small airports across Ohio and Pennsylvania men gazed tensely at the sky, momentarily expecting the flight to end in their own fields.

But Col. Thacker pushed his plane on.

As the Betty Jo taxied to a standstill, Col. Thacker, his face grey with fatigue but smiling happily, swung out on a wing.

Suddenly he glimpsed in the crowd his wife, Betty Jo, for whom his plane was named.

"Hey, look out!" he cried, leaping to the ground, "that's my wife!"

Wide Grin

Flinging his arms around her he kissed her, shouting, as if still speaking above the roar of engines, "I am kissing you now."

Co-pilot Lt. Ard leaped to the ground, almost directly into the arms of his wife, Doris, who ran around the plane tail to reach him. His features, somewhat dazed, broke in a wide grin as the two embraced.

There are no comparable records to that rolled up by the twin-engine fighter Betty Jo which covered the longest distance ever flown by a fighter plane.

A transcontinental record was set by an army plane—a single-engine P-80—on Jan. 26, 1946, when Col. William Council flew non-stop from coast to coast in four hours and 13 minutes.

The Betty Jo spans 51 feet in the wing and is 36 feet long in the fuselage. She is powered by two 2200-horsepower engines and comparable in appearance to two P-51 Mustangs built into one wing.

Purpose of the present flight is to determine the stamina of planes and men under the strain of long flights.

Twenty-Year Prison Term for Slaying

JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 28.—(AP)—A 20-year prison sentence was given J. O. Parker, 76, apartment house owner, when he was found guilty last night of second degree murder in the slaying of a tenant, Robert J. Turner.

Before the killing on December 27, 1945, Parker tried unsuccessfully to have Turner and his wife evicted. Parker pleaded self-defense in the trial, testifying that he shot Turner only after the tenant reached for his pocket and "rushed at me."

Warn Drivers The Highways Are Hazardous

Snow Expected To Continue Through Saturday

The temperature in Sedalia at 7 a. m. today was 24 degrees; at 3 p. m., 29 degrees. Snowfall: 1.75 inches: Moisture: .15 inch.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 28.—(AP)—The month of March will roar into Missouri with a white coat.

Snow which began falling this morning over most of the state is expected by the weather bureau to continue today and tonight. A fall of from six to ten inches was forecast for the northern part of the state, and three to six inches in the southern portion.

At 11 a. m. two inches had fallen here.

While highways and roads in the state are open, motorists were warned by Lieut. C. R. Oliver of the State Highway Patrol at Lee's Summit that hazardous driving conditions prevail in the western part of the state.

"It's very slick," he said. "This is the kind of weather when the other driver is most dangerous. Persons not needing to drive today should not try it."

Highway Department Busy

The State Highway Department was spreading cinders at the more dangerous points, where the early snow melted and then froze.

Cameron reported a heavy snow. Willow Springs had from two to four inches.

The snow here brought the first measurable precipitation for the month.

Temperatures in the twenties were expected by the weather bureau to prevail today and tonight. The state's low this morning was 20 at Kirksville. Tarkio, the state's usual cold spot, had a 23. St. Louis had 25 and Springfield 28.

Traffic moved slowly both in the city and its suburbs this morning. On U. S. Highway 169, about six miles north of here traffic was blocked for an hour when several vehicles stalled and skidded crosswise of the pavement. Two Greyhound buses, one from St. Joseph and one from Omaha, were delayed about 30 minutes.

Began Career In Sedalia

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 28—(AP)—Dr. Ellen L. Goebel, 59, professor of modern languages at the University of Tulsa, died early today at a hospital where she had been under treatment for 10 days.

A prominent member of the American Association of University Women, Dr. Goebel had been honored shortly before entering the hospital by the organization's local branch for her contributions to education and AAUW work.

A native of Santa Fe, N. M., she was reared at St. Charles, Mo., and was graduated from the University of Missouri. In all, she attended nine universities, including the Universities of Mexico, Madrid and Berlin.

She began her teaching career at Sedalia, Mo., coming to the university here in 1929.

Dr. Goebel taught German in the Sedalia high school for two or three years in about 1912, 1913, and 1914.

Spread of Influenza Easing in Columbia

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 28—(AP)—The spread of influenza among University of Missouri students appeared to be easing today.

Dr. Dan G. Stine, student health director, said only 27 new cases were admitted to the student hospital yesterday, compared with 50 the previous day.

Inoculation of students continued. Dr. Stine reported that of the 3,000 students receiving the shots none had contracted the "flu."

St. Louis Tax Declared Void

ST. LOUUIS, Feb. 28—(AP)— A city ordinance imposing a tax of one-fourth of one per cent on the earnings of individuals and the net incomes of corporations was declared "unconstitutional and void" by Circuit Judge Robt. J. Kirkwood today.

An immediate appeal to the state supreme court was expected to be taken by the city which has held out the city income tax as its No. 1 hope for revenue to offset a threatened deficit in municipal operations.

The income tax ordinance was passed by the board of aldermen last July 15 and signed by Mayor Aloys P. Kaufmann on Aug. 18. Payments in some cases have been withheld pending a court test of the ordinance.

Without Authority

In his ruling, Judge Kirkwood upheld the contention of counsel for Carter Carburetor Corp., and an intervenor, the Associated Industries of Missouri, that the tax ordinance was in conflict with the state constitution and was without authority in the city charter.

No injunction to restrain the city from collecting the tax was granted, although the court held "such may be obtained in the future if counsel so requests."

Family Exposed

CHICAGO, Feb. 28—(AP)—A black mongrel dog which wandered into the Warren avenue police station a few days ago made a fuss over Policeman Clarence Hayden, who said he doesn't like dogs.

But Hayden soon became the dog's champion although other policemen favored taking her to an animal shelter. Hayden allowed her the run of the station and fed her. Then he planned to take the dog home.

But he changed his plans last night. Police trailed the dog from the station and found she has a family of eight puppies hidden away in a nearby basement.

John B. Powell Died Suddenly

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—John B. Powell, 60, former managing editor of the China Weekly Review who lost part of both feet in a Japanese prison camp, died suddenly today at the conclusion of an address to University of Missouri alumni.

Powell was a native of Hannibal, Mo., and an alumnus of the university.

He had just finished the speech at the Lee-Sheraton hotel and taken a seat when he collapsed.

In his talk, he had predicted that Asia will assume increasing importance in world affairs.

Earlier, he had joked with friends that he was a "fugitive from Walter Reed hospital," where he had been learning to walk on artificial feet.

Both feet were amputated as a result of gangrene suffered in the Japanese prison camp where he was held several months after his capture in Shanghai in December, 1941.

Truman Nominates Director of World Bank

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—President Truman today nominated Eugene R. Black, Jr., vice-president of the Chase National bank in New York, as United States executive director of the World Bank. If confirmed by the Senate, Black will succeed Emilio C. Collado who resigned today.

Black is a resident of Princeton, N. J., and native of Atlanta.

She's Not Sure Which Brother Is Her Husband

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28—(AP)—Mrs. Jean Baclig wants a legal separation from one of two brothers, she isn't sure which.

Her suit for annulment or divorce said she wasn't certain of her intended bridegroom's first name when she married in Mexico last December 26.

But she added that she was sure of one thing: when she glanced at the marriage certificate it bore the name of Rudolph S. Baclig and that, she alleges, is the name of the brother of her intended husband.

She asks an annulment on grounds of fraud or a divorce on allegations of cruelty. The suit is directed against both brothers, "John Doe" and Rudolph S. Baclig.

Last Pullman On Fast Train Breaks Loose

Kills Porter, And Injures 11 Passengers

GALLITZIN, Pa., Feb. 28—(AP)—The last car of the Pennsylvania railroad's New York-to-Texas "Sunshine Special," tore loose from the train at the peak of the Alleghenies in pre-dawn darkness today, careened wildly down the mountain side and plowed into an embankment, killing a pullman porter and injuring 11 passengers.

The crash occurred at Bennington curve, the exact spot where the PRR's eastbound "Red Arrow" hurdled the rails a week ago and plummeted into a deep ravine, killing 24 persons and injuring some 150.

The victim of the crash today was identified by the railroad as L. Keys, a pullman employe who works out of the Houston, Tex., PRR district.

Railroad officials at Pittsburgh began an immediate investigation, centering the probe principally around why the car's automatic air-brakes failed to operate.

....Investigating

"That's what we want to know first," the spokesman said, adding that the investigators will also seek to find out "how the car uncoupled from the train while it was standing still at the top of the mountain."

The train had stopped outside Galliazin to take off one of two engines used to pull it up the treacherous and tough mountain climb.

Passengers in the other sleepers and coaches did not know the train had lost a car until it reached Pittsburgh, about 100 miles west of here.

The injured were taken to Altoona, six miles east of the accident, by the PRR's New York-to-St. Louis "Jeffersonian." Two were admitted to Mercy hospital, nine to Altoona hospital. None was reported in serious condition.

Sisters Have Sons Same Day

Two sisters, Mrs. Don M. Clifford, 408 East Twelfth street, the former Miss Mildred Richardson, and Mrs. Wayne Vanderlinden, 905 East Thirteenth street, the former Miss Genevieve Richardson, gave birth to sons the same day at Bothwell hospital and are now in the same room. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Richardson, 909 East Thirteenth street.

The son was born to Mrs. Clifford at 7:40 o'clock Wednesday morning, February 26 weighing 8 pounds, 3 ounces.

At 4:00 o'clock Wednesday afternoon an 8 pounds, 14 ounce son was born to Mrs. Vanderlinden.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Vanderlinden has been named Richard Wayne Vanderlinden. They have another child, a four year old girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford have named their son, Timothy James Clifford. This is their first child.

Burglars Miss Nothing

CHOCAGO, Feb. 28—(AP)—The thieves who broke into Peter Skizas' west side restaurant, he told police, were completely thorough in their job of stealing.

They took $50 from the cash register, cigars and cigarettes, a typewriter, a radio, silverware, cutlery, and raided the kitchen taking 20 pounds of butter.

Their final act was breaking open the telephone coin box and taking all the coins.

German Needs Lowest in 100 Years History

Hoover Reports, Suggests Loan From U. S. Not a Gift

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover called on Congress today to put United States relief abroad on a loan rather than a gift basis. He also urged establishment of the post of Foreign Relief Administrator to coordinate this country's missions of mercy.

Only a day after he recommended that the United States spend $475,000,000 for the relief of Germany alone over the 18-month period beginning last Jan. 1, he was called to give his view before the House Foreign Affairs committee on a proposed bill to expend $350,000,000 in five other European countries and China.

Just back from making a three-weeks' survey of Europe's food needs, Hoover contends that relief for the other European countries should not be put at higher levels than those he recommended for Germany and Austria.

Sunk To Low Level

In his report to President Truman on the survey, Hoover said German civilian needs have "sunk to the lowest level known in 100 years of history. He recommended that the United States and Britain each spend half of $951,000,000 on German relief.

Hoover offered nine specific recommendations for handling relief:

1. No relief other than food, medicine, seed and fertilizers should be furnished under all relief appropriations. In some cases, limited supplies of clothing might be included.

2. Relief under our contributions should be limited to United States products and to transportation. We should not use American dollars to purchase elsewhere.

3. None of the funds should be used for countries which are able to pay in cash or secure credit or supplies through other channels.

4. Further careful estimate of need and costs of relief should be made after full consideration on the ground by specialists appointed by the United States Department of Agriculture, the United States Public Health Service and the International Emergency Food Council.

Should Be Supervised

5. The distribution should be continuously under the supervision of, and satisfactory to, specialists from the agencies named.

6. No obligation or promise should be entered into with any country for any specific amount or relief; the distribution must be on a month-to-month program terminable at any time.

7. No food from relief or domestic production in any needy country should be used for political pressure and there should be no racial or other discrimination.

8. No relief should be given where either commodities or cash are going out of such nation for reparations or the purchase of arms. Such commodities or cash should be used to pay for food.

9. Any nation receiving relief should obligate itself to pay the cost thereof, either to the United States and other donors or preferably to a fund to be established by the United Nations for future famine relief.

Weather Slows Coal Movement

LONDON, Feb. 28.—(AP)—New snow and sleet slowed the movement of coal from British pits today and Prime Minister Attlee postponed setting a date for the switch-on of industrial power to London and Southeast England.

Attlee told the house of commons, however, that he might be able to announce the date during the week-end if conditions improved. With industrial power already restored in the Midlands and the northwest, unemployment has dropped by 624,000, he said.

Snow spread from the north of England to the south coast and more was expected. Temperatures hovered around freezing as they did over most of Europe, with no early prospect of a general thaw.

Heavy snow fell in France, Belgium, Holland and Southern Germany, while the temperature in Berlin rose slowly toward the thawing point. Sub-zero weather continued in Scandinavia. Cold rain fell in Northern Italy, where the temperature hung just above freezing.

Russia Believed to Have Air Army of 100,000

By Elton C. Fay

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—(AP)—Russia is believed to have an airborne army in being or in training far surpassing that of any other power.

Information filtering out of Russia indicates, it was learned today, that the Soviet Union's strength in troops trained for lightning strikes from the air may number as high as 100,000 men.

This force compares with the single airborne division which the United States possesses. That division—the 82nd at Fort Bragg, N. C.—has an authorized strength of 13,000 men, but presumably is below that figure.

Efforts to bring the 82nd nearer authorized strength have been complicated by the use of trained airborne soldiers as elements of occupation forces in Germany and Japan.

Report May Be Misleading

Some strategists note that the reported 100,000-man strength of the Russian airborne force may be misleading because of a possible Soviet deficiency in the important matter of air transportation.

Russia's primary aviation interest during the war was in fighter type planes. She virtually ignored heavy bomber aircraft and, either because of policy or production difficulties, did little transport plane building. What her strength in transport is today is uncertain.

Lend-lease reports show that during the war the United States turned over to Russia about 700 transport airplanes among the 25,000 delivered.

Copied United States

How many of these 700 transports, plus any she may have obtained from Britain and built herself still are operable is unknown. However, American experts have estimated that it requires about 1,500 transports of existing designs to move one division of about 12,000 men without their equipment.

During World War II, Russia's standard airborne unit was a brigade of slightly more than 4,000 men used either as parachutists or carried in transports. While details are not known, it is believed that the Red army may have organized its postwar airborne force somewhat along the lines of the United States, into divisions probably about the standard 12,000 strength.

OPA Controls Until June 30

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—The senate appropriations committee voted 8 to 5 today to allow the office of price administration $17,991,815 to continue rent, rice and sugar controls until June 30.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) said the committee wrote into a $190,966,000 money bill a provision requiring OPA and the office of temporary controls to end all activities June 30

This action was taken, Bridges said, on motion of Senator Thomas (D-Okla) and was approved by an 11 to 2 committee vote.

Bridges said the committee, in effect, allowed the OPA about $5,000,000 to continue its operations for the next four months, with the remainder of the fund earmarked for payment of terminal leave of employes and for liquidation purposes.

OPA officials originally had asked for $5,000,000 monthly for the next four months. Bridges said the agency must make "drastic cuts" in its personnel, operating with about one-fifth of its present force of about 14,000 employes

A subcommittee had recommended yesterday by a 6 to 5 vote that OPA should have $22,000,000 to operate through June 30.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—Walter W. Cenerazzo, president of the American Watch Workers Union, today called the building trades agreement endorsed by President Truman "one of the disasters of the year."

He told the senate labor committee the pact designed to settle disputes between the Associated General Contractors and AFL construction unions will "keep on raising wages, keep on collusion on building codes" and "put homes out of the reach of the little man."

Senator Ball (R-Minn) had brought up the building trades pact, referring to it as "the so-called agreement" which he said thus far had not worked very well.

Britain's Economy Strained

Reported to Have Proposed U. S. Help Bolster the Greek Government

By Alex H. Singleton

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—Britain, her domestic economy near the breaking point, was reported in congressional and diplomatic quarters today to have proposed that the United States take over her commitments in Greece on a large scale.

Although there was no White House confirmation, this was understood to have been the subject—at least in part—of a highly secretive White House conference yesterday among President Truman, his diplomatic advisers and key legislators.

One source said that the United States would issue a statement soon on what part, if any, it would assume in helping bolster the shaky Greek government.

(In London, a foreign office spokesmen said British and United States discussions were under way in Washington on the problem of continuing the economic and military obligations in strife-torn Greene now borne by Britain.

Discuss Greece

(The spokesman implied one aspect of the talks was the continued provision of foreign currency with which Greece could purchase arms and military equipment.

LONDON, Feb. 28— (AP) — Winston Churchill, declaring that "our empire is being cast away," called on business men and industrialists today to do all they can to bring the labor government "to a speedy end."

(His reference was to the fact that Britain is ending her dominion over India and Burma, withdrawing from Egypt and seeking to turn over her Palestine mandate to the United Nations.)

Churchill said in a message to the annual meeting of the political council of the Constitutional club:

"Too long has there been general apathy among business men about politics. They must do their duty without delay or face a situation even more serious than the present."

(The discussions, he added, arose out of the ending March 31, of Britain's commitment to maintain the Greek armed forces. The same spokesman said he saw no prospects of U. S. military forces being sent to the country after Britain's forces get out.

(Other government sources said Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin was planning to withdraw Britain's remaining 10,000 troops from Greece within the next three months.)

It was learned from diplomats in Washington that the whole problem of Greece, together with a report on Britain's waning resources, was laid before Secretary of State Marshall by Lord Inverchapel, British ambassador to this country, at a recent conference.

Could Redraft Plans

Should the United States decide to take over a large share of British commitments in Greece, and perhaps elsewhere, to help restore Europe's stability, it could well force a redrafting of this nation's plans for forign relief expenditures.

This in turn might force an upward revision of both President Truman's budget estimates, a problem, which in turn would affect the current congressional drive for trimming his $37,500,000,000 figure, tax cuts and debt reduction.

One key phase of relief costs, the problem of feeding occupied Germany, has brought a report to Mr. Truman from former President Herbert Hoover. After a personal review abroad, Hoover reported to the White House yesterday and went before the House foreign affairs committee today.

May Curtail Elsewhere

The Greek and related middle east problems, as well as the European relief picture, could have constituted a situation serious enough for such a conference as that held at the White House yesterday. It brought together Marshall, the leaders of both parties on Capitol Hill, and the chairman and ranking minority members of the House and Senate foreign affairs and appropriations committees.

Should Britain find her resources that it has become necessary to withdraw economic support from Greece, diplomats speculated it was likely she may have to curtail elsewhere commitments of her post-war policy.

S-C Tigers In Victory 58 To 17 Over Slater

Tonight They Face Kemper Or Grand Pass

The Smith Cotton Tigers defeated the Slater Cagers Thursday night in what one of the spectators classed as "just another one of Sedalia's offensive games," by a score of 58 to 17.

The game was comparatively slow at the start, but Sedalia picked up fast and showed that they were not going to stop for any team. The second string played the majority of the game, and did a fine job.

Egbert, Tiger center, placed as high point man with fourteen points. Thomas and Tipton had ten points each and Mickens scored elevn for second place honors. The high point man for the Slater five was Miller and Richardson with five points each.

Play Again Tonight

This is Sedalia's second win with no defeats in this tourney, and they are destined to face the winner of the Kemper, Grand Pass game. This game will be tonight at Marshall starting at 7:30 o'clock.

During the first quarter Sedalia picked up eleven points and Slater followed with four. Second quarter found Sedalia advancing fifteen more points and Slater lagging behind with two. The third stanza was all Sedalia. The Bengals got eighteen and Slater five. The final round was fourteen for Sedalia and six for the Slater quintet.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh J. Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28— (AP) — When the Cleveland Browns went to Miami last fall, announcer Bob Smith decided to go along in spite of the fact that the state finals in barbershop quartet singing were coming up and Tom is tenor in the more-or-less celebrated "Tom Cats" of Massillon, Ohio. . . . The quartet drafted another celebrated Massillon citizen, the Yankees' Tommy Henrich, rehearsed the required two songs for a week and proceeded to win the state title. . . . The payoff came after the award when the crowd hollered for an encore and the Tom Cats couldn't give one because Tommy hadn't worked out on any more songs.

And Willis Anderson, the Floridian who had more college offers than he could count, will enter Auburn in June. So will a lot of other better-than-fair athletes. . . . Larry (Young) Berra of the Yanks and Joe Garagiola of the Cardinals, both catchers, once played sandlot ball together. . . . Irving Jaffee, one-time Olympic speed skating champ, has been named sports director of the National Dunking Association, which celebrates "Donut Week" March 9-15. Norman Park (Ga) Junior College boasts that it has lost every home basketball game this season and, as a safeguard against complaints in case they should win, the Bears have instituted the practice of using officials from visiting teams whenever possible. . . . "Anyway," says Publicitor Charles Copp, "they're establishing themselves as the perfect hosts."

The first session of the Syracuse town team tournament being played at the Syracuse high school started Thursday night with eight teams playing.

Mayer Sells Racing Stable

ARCADIA, Calif., Feb. 28—(AP)—Movie Magnate Louis B. Mayer, who won $1,732,036 in 10 years with his racing stable, sold it for a record breaking $1,553,500 in an auction last night that lived up to big money promises.

As some 5,000 bidders and spectators sat in on the dispersal at Santa Anita park, 60 thoroughbreds paraded in and out of the ring, with Mayer's top four offerings bringing a total of $570,000, to wit:

Stepfather, ace 3 year old Derby hopeful, $200,000; Busher, winner of $334,035 before she was injured last year $135,000; Honeymoon, winner of $222,370 and a candidate in the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap tomorrow, $135,000; Be Faithful, 5 year old mare, winner of $94,940, $100,000.

The average sale, when all was finished late last night, was $25,891 — said to be a record by auctioneers handling the show.

Abduction Story Turns Out Hoax

LONG BEACH, Calif., Feb. 28—(AP)—Police announced Thursday that a pretty 17-year-old high school girl's story of being abducted by a man, bound, gagged, then disrobed and tortured, much in the manner of Los Angeles' recent "Black Dahlia" case, has turned out to be a hoax.

Juvenile authorities said that Jacquelin Mae Stang, daughter of a Long Beach businessman, had confessed that she herself had inflicted the cuts and burns on her body which she told police were the work of her assailant.

"She admits her whole story is a hoax," Juvenile Bureau Director Joseph H. Kennick announced after authorities had found discrepancies in two stories she told.

"Could it be despondency over differences with your boy friend that caused you to tell this story?" a juvenile officer asked Miss Stang.

"It could be," she answered.

The girl was taken to the city health physician's office late today for a physical examination. A police physician said she had not been raped.

Aged Woman Is Injured

Mrs. Ida Kern, 83, 926 South Kentucky avenue, was injured about 1 o'clock this afternoon in the 900 block on South Kentucky avenue. Involved was a taxicab driven by Edgar Davis, 705 East Eleventh street, driver for the Harrison Cab Co.

According to a report made to the police by Davis, he did not see Mrs. Kern until the accident occurred. The police report states a car was passing on Kentucky and Mrs. Kern walked from behind this car into the side of the taxicab which was being driven north on Kentucky, she striking the left door of the car.

Davis was driving slowly because of the snow storm. He came to an abrupt stop, offering what aid he could. Mrs. Kern was rushed to the Bothwell hospital in the Gillespie ambulance, where Dr. Karl B. Gonser gave medical treatment.

Mrs. Kern will remain in the hospital for further observation. She apparently is suffering from shock, abrasions, and bruises. It was not determined just how serious her condition is.

Police made an investigation. No arrest was made.

The Red Birds Sacred Heart softball club held a business meeting Thursday night at the home of Charlie Weller, 916 West Tenth street.

At this meeting plans were made for the team for the coming season. It also presented an opportunity for boys to express their own opinions as to the management of the club. Twenty aspirants were presented.

The eighteen members of the team have been outfitted with new red warm-up jackets. The team has spent $350 for other ball equipment.

Letters were written to the park board members two weeks ago requesting two nights a week, if possible, or one night under the lights during the summer months.

Tommy Sanders

The Red Birds will be represented on the mound this year as the team is fortunate to again have the veteran Tommy Sanders. Young Sanders is considered by local baseball fans as one of the most promising pitchers in this locality.

Saunders is backed by Howard Hayes and Lauren Williams, two new pitchers to the team.

The first practice for the team will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, March 16, at Liberty Park.

Road is Icy, Cars Collide

The swift return of winter weather left four people with minor bruises or scratches when the icy condition of the road figured in a collision between the 1941 Chevrolet coupe of Lawrence Jorgenson, Guthrie Center, Ia., and the 1947 Frazier sedan of Dr. Lee White, Warsaw, driven by W. Jorgenson was represented in police court by Harry J. Cooney, member of the law firm of Montgomery, Martin and Salveter, through an insurance company.

Home Service

Mrs. Herbert Seifert, home service, which she said was the connecting link between the army man and his home. They are still very busy filing claims of disability, compensation, hospitalization and adjusted service compensation.

Miss Teddy Finney, public information, who told of the publicity of various services and the help in recruiting volunteers.

C. F. Scotten, accident prevention chairman, was unable to be present.

Addressing the group Mr. Martin said in part:

"In visiting the homes, factories, offices and farms of Pettis county this year, we are letting the people who support our chapter know that their Red Cross is carrying on. Our slogan 'Your Red Cross Carries On' will find a generous response among the residents of our area who want to see services to veterans, safety and health programs and the other endeavors of the Pettis county Red Cross Chapter carried on without curtailment or interruption.

"Never in time of peace has the American Red Cross been called upon to render such extensive services to the military necessity," Mr. Martin said.

Peacetime Activities

"The peacetime activities of the American Red Cross are not new but are imposed upon the organization by its congregational charter and are of the same nature as those rendered by it after World War I with two marked differences, the speaker said. "First, there is an American army of occupation in Japan, Korea, Germany, Austria and Italy and second, there were four times as many American men and women in World War II as there were in World War I. Thus now the number of wounded and disabled to be cared for in army, navy and veterans' hospitals in this country and the number of able-bodied veterans requiring services from the Red Cross can be thought of in the ration of four to one as compared with the previous war."

In Sixty-sixth Year

"For the sixty-sixth year, the American Red Cross in almost 9,000 communities throughout the United States is going to the people who use it, who trust it and who support it. And for the sixty-sixth year," Mr. Martin told the campaign solicitors, "the sole financial support of the Red Cross comes from the voluntary contributions of the people. In the past they have never failed to support our programs generously I am certain that the response this year will be equally wholehearted."

The system then will cover more than 5,000 employes in the penal and eleemosynary institutions in the department of health and welfare and all the division of employment security.

Snow Might Stop Anglers

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 28—(AP)—Conservation officials took a peak at the still falling snow today, looked dolefully at the weather forecast then took a big tuck in their estimate that 2,000 Missourians would open the 1947 trout season tomorrow.

G. B. Herndon, head of the fisheries section, said the cold and snow wouldn't stop avid anglers from packing the three state parks but the slick roads might. He predicted the crowd would total about 1,200, approximately the number that opened the season last year.

Generally, there is a large number of Missourians who attend the opening just to watch others pull the rainbows out of the chilly Ozark streams. But Herndon said he figured the gallery would be a lot smaller because of the weather.

Trout may be taken in three state parks, Montauk, Bennett Springs and Roaring River, and in five special areas in south Missouri streams.

Sponsors of the bill said it was aimed at the Ku Klux Klan and similar organizations.

The Markets

Run-Away Market

CHICAGO, Feb. 28—(AP)—A run-away market erupted in the grain pits on the Board of Trade today and prices soared under aggressive short covering and new buying demand.

The March wheat contract jumped 10 cents, limit permitted in a single session, to a new 27 year high for any wheat delivery at $2.53. Other deliveries were sharply higher. May, July and September wheat were at the best levels for these specific contracts in 30 years.

Corn soared with wheat. Gains extended to more than 7 cents at times, largest since removal of OPA price ceilings, and new seasonal highs were reached by May, July and September.

Industries rushed to obtain cash corn and shipping sales out of this market were placed at 500,000 bushels. Distillers were said to be heavy buyers.

Oats were up more than 3 cents at ane time. May, July and September oats reached new seasonal highs.

Buying in all pits was touched off by Herbert Hoover's report on food conditions in Germany.

The advance continued through to the end.

Wheat closed 8½ to 10 cents higher, March $2.53; corn was up ⅜¼ to 8 cents, the daily limit for this grain, March $1.57 to $1.55½, and oats 2¾ to 4¼ cents higher, March 84⅞c to 85c.

World's Oldest Jockey is Dead

LA CROSSE, Kas., Feb. 28—(AP)—Stephen Levi Burlingame, 95, who spent more than 60 years of his life as a jockey riding on tracks from Mexico to Canada, is dead.

Known as the "world's oldest jockey," he rode his last race when he was 80 at Stafford, Kas. In that race his horse fell and Burlingame suffered a fractured leg.

A native of Green Lake, Wis., he came to La Crosse in 1874 and spent most of his life here except for his travels as a jockey.

God or Satan

At least three score operas and plays have been written around the unhappy story of Dr. Faustus. Faustus sold his soul to the devil so that he might enjoy unlimited power during his life. The story reaches its climax when the devil finally claims Faustus for his own. For a lifetime of sin, he must pay with an eternity of torment.

Far older than the story of Faustus are the Biblical narratives of Esau, who surrendered his birthright for a mess of pottage; and of Judas, who bartered his soul for silver by betraying Christ with a kiss. Both Esau and Judas personify the supreme folly of placing temporal advantages above eternal happiness.

Few might sell their souls outright as Judas did, but there are many who sell themselves to Satan on the installment system. These are the people given up to selfish living, indifferent to spiritual things. These are the worldlngs who turn from God to fashion a Golden Calf out of excessive concern for material joys.

In His parable of the sheep and the goats, Christ warned against the immeasurable folly of giving oneself over to the things of earth. Only to those who have kept faith with themselves and with God are to be addressed the welcome words: "Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world."

Every man has the choice—to serve God and man and reap God's blessing; or to seek first the pleasures of earth, and thus be doomed one day to pay an everlasting penalty.

Jesus Sums Up His Claims
Scripture: John 12:12-50; Mark 11:1-10.

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

"Claims" does not seem quite the word to apply to the sayings of Jesus concerning Himself. The word suggests a self-assertiveness that was in no sense characteristic of the Master or His spirit.

He was confident concerning His mission and His teaching He was sure that He had come from God, and that He was doing the Father's will. But He claimed no earthly greatness. He said He was among the disciples as one who served, that He had come to minister and not to be ministered unto, and His mission was to give His life a ransom for many.

So the word "claims" is not fully acceptable, though Jesus did assert with clearness His divine nature, His divine mission and His divine authority. That authority was of the truth inherent in the words He uttered.

He really made no claim except in the truth that He declared and His divinity was in the completeness with which He did the Father's will. "In Him," wrote Paul (Colossians 2:9), "dwelleth all the fullness of the godhead bodily."

The revelation in Christ was of God's spiritual nature, His grace and love toward man, the message of which was the gospel that Jesus proclaimed.

I have never seen any value in speculations concerning the nature of Jesus, beyond that clear fact which His life and teachings, and His own declaration, establish — that He was one with the Father in His mission as the Saviour of men. "He that hath seen Me hath seen the Father also."

I sat once in a group of ministers where the discussion fell upon the question of the human limitations of Jesus. Obviously, there were limitations. He hungered and was athirst. He slept and He wept. He felt the need of rest and prayer. He was subject to temptation.

The writer of the Book of Hebrews has much to say about the reality of His humanity, in asserting at the same time that it was in that humanity that He revealed divinity and that in Him God and man were united.

But in that company of ministers was one man who believed that Jesus in His earthly life had such unlimited knowledge and power that, if He had chosen to do so, He could have given to His age electric lights and similar modern inventions.

To me, such an assumption is at once questionable, unnecessary and distracting. It diverts attention from the uniquely moral and spiritual mission of Jesus.

He did not come into the world to give it new machines and inventions He came to bear witness unto truth, to give men the message of God's love and to incarnate in Himself the love that He bade them bear to one another.

His claim upon you and me is that we should love one another, as He has loved us.

The regular meeting of the Women's Guild will be held Thursday, March 6, with luncheon at one o'clock. The church council meets Thursday, 7:30 p. m. The Builders class meets at the church Friday, March 7, 7:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"CHRIST JESUS" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 2, 1947.

Golden Text: Isaiah 9:6.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth." (Matthew 5:5). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "We cannot choose for ourselves, but must work out our salvation in the way Jesus taught. In meekness and might, he was found preaching the gospel to the poor. Pride and fear are unfit to bear the standard of Truth, and God will never place it in such hands." (p. 30).

Superintendent's Report to The Commissioners

February 7, 1947.

Gentlemen:

The following report of work accomplished for the year 1946 by the Twelve Mile Special Road District is submitted for your approval.

We have some 300 miles of road in our district all of which are hard surfaced, 260¾ miles with gravel and 72½ miles with black-top surface. During the year 1946 we have added 2½ miles of new black-top and all the black-top roads in the district were resurfaced with new oil and chat. All bridges have been kept maintained and one new bridge added which is 2'x3'x24'. One new low-water bridge was constructed. Twenty bridges were repaired with new floors and spillways. Eight new Armco drainage tile, 15' to 24' have been laid. We have completed 69½ miles of ditch-line and shoulder work on our roads in the district. Ten miles of roadside improvement have been done which includes clearing hedges, brush and bank-sloping. Thirty miles of new hard-surfaced roads constructed with new gravel. All weeds in the district along shoulders were mowed twice and all snow graded off the streets and black-top roads. In addition to the above mentioned road improvements for the year we have purchased one railroad bridge which is being used over Flat Creek on the Grand Avenue road. The district has also purchased one new pick-up truck and one new K-7 International truck.

Respectfully,
Wm. McGEE,
Superintendent.

For month of January 1946:

The names of all of the parties to said action are stated above in the caption hereof and the name and address of the attorney for plaintiffs is John T. Martin, Sedalia Trust Building, Sedalia, Missouri.

You, and each of you, are further notified that unless you file an answer or other pleading or shall otherwise appear and defend against the aforesaid petition within forty-five (45) days after the 14th day of February, 1947, judgment by default will be rendered against you.

It is ordered that a copy of this notice shall be published according to law in the Sedalia Democrat, a newspaper of general circulation, published in the County of Pettis, State of Missouri, all as provided by Section 28 (b) of the Civil Code of Missouri.

Suit Filed Asks $10,000 Damages

A suit for $10,000 damages was filed in circuit court Thursday by Mrs. Birdie Riley against Guy A. Thompson, trustee of the Missouri Pacific railroad company, a corporation. The petition stated the plaintiff was the wife of Charles F Riley who lost his life on December 23, 1944 in an automobile-train accident on the old Sedalia-Dresden road. It further alleged that the train was going west while the car was heading north, and it is alleged that the alarm bell on the crossing did not work and the car window on the right side had been broken and had been replaced with cardboard and Mr. Riley could not see the oncoming train.

The petition also states that Mr. Riley, a farmer, is survived by two minor children and that a suit was filed within six months of his death and the plaintiff took involuntary non-suit and that this suit was filed with one year of the non-suit.

The plaintiff asks for the sum of $10,000 damages and costs. Attorneys for the plaintiff are Lamm and Barnett.

In the early 19th Century, airtight sealing of bottles and jars was effected by use of a cement made of cheese and powdered lime, which hardened fast and resisted water and heat.

Love Has Two Faces

By Irene Lonnen Ernhart

Copyright, 1947, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: "I suppose you wish you'd married Mike Cargill," Parker charges Cassie. "You're always thinking about him." This is the start of a serious quarrel which ends in Parker and Cassie deciding on divorce. That night, Cassie sleeps in Leni's room.

* * *

XXIV

IT was late when Cassie awakened. Leni had already gone down.

There was a sharp knock on the door. "Cassie."

A dry feeling came into her throat. "Yes, Parker." She reached for her robe, lying across the foot of the bed.

He stood in the doorway, tall, lanky, awkward, his brown eyes non-committal.

"I'm—" he cleared his throat, "I'm leaving now. I left a few shirts and things. You'll see that they get sent."

"But Parker, last night we—"

"Yes, I know. We were both tight. Funny isn't it, how people say what they really mean when their inhibitions get all loosened up."

She felt stuffy and uncertain from the sleeping pills she had finally had to take when it looked as though she would lie awake all night.

"I'll find a place to stay, and maybe when we've both had time to think things through we can arrange for what we discussed last night."

"Parker, I'm terribly sorry. I feel so—so confused."

"You won't. You'll see it all pretty clearly once you've had time to reason it out. Well—I've got to hurry—first broadcast, you know. Good luck, Cassie. I'll see you—probably next weekend."

His brown eyes had a clear calm look. They weren't at all spaniel-like.

She heard his footsteps clattering down the stairs. He was gone.

She sat down on the edge of Leni's bed, her knees like water. Tears started brimming in her eyes. Down below there was the sound of Leni's laughter and Parker's voice saying goodby.

Mama called up the stairway.

"Cassie, your breakfast's waitin'. You're goin' to be late this morning."

* * *

FUNNY how things could happen to you, but life went rolling merrily along just the same. Just like when Ellen died. You didn't think the wheels would go right on turning, but they did. It all happened inside you. Externally nothing changed at all.

"It looks like you'd'a taken the day off and gone up to the radio station with Parker, to hear him, his first broadcast and all," Papa said, buttering his toast.

She felt Sid's curious reproachful eyes and Leni's mocking look.

She put her cup down with a nervous clatter. "We're awfully busy at the office, and anyway it might make him nervous, having someone there."

"I'm going," Leni said. She tossed her head. "He comes on at twelve fifteen. If you change your mind about going—I'll see you at the bus station."

So Leni was going. Leni was always on hand to buck Parker up. Always Leni.

"Gosh, I sure wish I could'a gone," Sid remarked wistfully. "Just think, we'll hear Parker over the radio, just like he was playin' in our own front room, and they'll hear him all over everywhere."

Cassie rose hastily. "I'll be late if I don't get dressed."

The bus ride to town was interminable. And the morning's work didn't go well. She kept thinking about Parker and herself.

It was almost twelve-fifteen before she could manage lunch, so she walked down Fourth street to a small hamburger joint where she knew there was a radio.

Perhaps it was silly, but she did want to hear Parker. A lump of stage-fright and pride came into her throat as she listened to the announcer's build-up. And then the music began.

She could almost see Parker, bent over the piano, his big shoulders hunched, his thin face wearing that intense look, his fingers seeming to caress the keys as they coaxed out the intricate chords and harmonies.

Parker had a definite style, different than she had ever heard. She realized suddenly that his playing was quite wonderful.

* * *

THE waiter brought her to with a start. "That feller's really hot stuff!" he said. He rummaged in his teeth with a toothpick and went on listening with rapt attention.

"D'ja know he's from Mortonville?"

Cassie nodded.

"His folks used to be well-to-do, had one of the big houses up on the hill. He—"

"Yes, I know." She slid off the stool suddenly, flipped half a dollar on the counter and went out.

The October air was cool on her face. She tried to think again about last night. If only little Ellen had lived, maybe things would have turned out differently. Or if Parker hadn't lost the money. But what was the use of going over and over it. It all boiled down to the simple fact that Parker wanted her to divorce him.

Leni was home in time for supper and told them all about the broadcast. She was enthusiastic.

"Everybody's just crazy about Parker. The engineers spent a lot of time getting the mikes adjusted just right—and the timing was just swell. Everything went off perfectly!"

She turned to Cassie. "Oh by the way, Cass, I saw an old friend of yours again today, in Indianapolis."

"Who?"

"Mike Cargill. Parker and I saw him last week when we were up there, but I forgot to tell you."

President Opens Red Cross Drive Tonight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—President Truman is scheduled to open the 1947 Red Cross fund campaign tonight with a four-network broadcast at 10 p. m. EST.

The agency is seeking $60,000,000 for its operations this year.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-Round

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28— The current tragic tieup of the nation's economy because of the freight car shortage might have been saved if the railroads had taken the advice of Washington experts.

It was never published at the time, but, two years before the war, J. Leonard Replogle, former Republican national committeeman from Florida and expert on the Baruch board during the last war, gave the railroads a blunt prediction of things to come.

Testifying before the Stettinius board on national resources necessary for the impending war, Replogle warned that the country would need 400,000 new freight cars to handle wartime economy. He told the board that many of the cars now in use were old and would not bear up under the wear and tear of war. He urged a government loan to finance 400,000 new cars.

This brought loud and vigorous protests from the American Railway Association. The spokesman, the late J. J. Pelley, replied that the railroads were in good shape and needed no new cars. Nothing was done. Result: Critical steel had to be diverted from building freight cars during the war. And today with equipment getting older and older, there are more wrecks and not enough cars to haul vitally needed goods. Though new freight cars are now being built at the rate of 7,000 a month, old cars should be scrapped at the rate of 7,000. Thus it will take a long time to overcome the present car shortage.

Army Waste

Congressman John Taber of New York put his finger directly on illustrations of army waste during the closed-door Republican caucus on the budget. Taber, a rigid congressional economizer, pointed out that the army is now wasting manpower by maintaining four "liaison" offices on Capitol Hill, presumably to curry favor with congressmen.

"There was only one such liaison office here during the war," declared Taber, who is chairman of the joint budget committee. "Why does the army need four now when we are at peace? Very few members use those offices anyhow." That is just one example of waste, continued Taber. Another, he said, was the billeting of 22 army officers, plus their staffs, in expensive hotels in Germany for the purpose of preparing a history of the Nuremberg trials.

"There are plenty of competent historians here in the United States, associated with universities, who would be glad to do the job if they were given visitors' visas," thundered the New Yorker. "Why saddle such expense on the taxpayers?"

There was only one brief flare up at the GOP caucus when Rep. Judd of Minnesota began shooting questions at the leaders about whether the economy program was binding or optional upon the appropriations committee — the committee which actually appropriates the exact dollars and cents going to each government bureau after congress fixes the overall budget for the entire government.

"This is no time to bring in technicalities," exploded Majority Leader Charles Halleck of Indiana. "The purpose of the resolution is to decide whether we are for or against economy. It's that simple."

Note — Despite attempts by Congressman Charles Eaton of New Jersey, who is opposed to drastic budget cuts, to adjourn the caucus, Republicans leaders invoked a motion proposed by Carl Van Zandt of Pennsylvania that the final secret vote bind every Republican in the house to support the full six-billion budget cut.

Read Around the World

The one minute speech is one of the oldest institutions of congress. It is a pet device by which congressmen get a grievance or some other personal project off their chests, usually delivered with one eye on the press gallery and usually forgotten after the speaker's gavel falls.

However, Freshman GOP Representative J. J. Javits of New York, a decorated war vet, made a short talk the other day that was read around the world. The speech was sent by the state department to our diplomats everywhere because of its cogent analysis of refugee problems. Javits stated, in part:

"The plight of these living dead, the walking casualties of World War II, cries out for help to the conscience of the world. Four-fifths of the one million refugees and displaced persons are Poles, White Russians and Ukrainians, most of whom refuse to be repatriated because of their opposition to the regimes now governing their countries.

"It is a popular misconception that most displaced persons are Jews. In fact, only about 25 per cent of the aggregate number in Austria, Italy and Germany are Jews, while 75 percent are Christians. The 25 percent long only for the opening of the Jewish National Home in Palestine. The United States is now spending an estimated eight to ten million dollars a month to maintain displaced persons in the American occupation zone in Europe.

"Subject to approval by congress, the United States has subscribed 45 percent of the operating budget of the international refugee organization under the United Nations. Even Great Britain, despite her own desperate plight, has agreed to subscribe 14 percent. Canada has joined, as have France, Norway, Liberia, the Philippines, Denmark, Honduras, the Dominican Republic and Guatemala, bringing subscriptions to almost 75 percent of the required IRO budget.

"Let us pray that, with united effort through this international refugee organization and through a just solution in Palestine, a ray of light may be introduced into the blackness which is life for the displaced persons and refugees in Europe in 1947."

Truman to New Orleans

Young Congressman Hale Boggs of Louisiana got an encouraging pat on the back from President Truman for a house speech defending David Lilienthal the other day, but failed to persuade the president to visit New Orleans. Truman said he would take a "rain check," and promised to show up for a hemispheric trade exposition in New Orleans next fall if circumstances permit.

"I think I'll take Mon Wallgren (former senator, now governor of Washington) along if I go," mused the president. "Mon once bragged to me about how he taught the folks in New Orleans to play billiards. I want to see if he's as good as he says."

The Louisiana congressman replied that his constituents were less interested in billiards at the moment than in fostering "Good Neighbor" trade. International House, an organization Boggs helped establish for promoting more trade between the Mississippi valley and Latin America, was going great guns in a new 15-story building, he told Truman and the fall exposition will highlight the trade program.

"That's when we want you there, Mr. President," concluded the Louisiana congressman.

Capital Chaff

Congratulations to Solicitor General "Shorty" Andrews of Georgia and his assistant, Paul Webb, for their conviction of the pro-Nazi Columbians. . . . Herbert Hoover's quick return from Europe is in order to testify in favor of a large appropriation by which the American army can feed Europe. He will oppose a drastic cut in the budget.

Congressional tax experts decided to reduce the 25 percent communications tax following an urgent plea from officials of the Western Union Telegraph company, who reported that Western Union faced an $8,000,000 deficit this year because great numbers of telegram senders have refused to pay the tax and are switching to airmail.

Dock Fire At Pearl Harbor

Sailors And Marines Battle It Three Hours

PEARL HARBOR, Feb. 28—(AP)—An oil-fed fire that swept suddenly over a quarter-mile long wooden dock at Pearl Harbor was brought under control Thursday by 500 sailors and marines after a three-hour battle.

Twenty-five firefighters were overcome by smoke and taken to navy hospital for emergency treatment. None was believed in serious condition.

The dense, oily smoke, rising from one of the worst blazes in Pearl Harbor's history, overcame many others, but they were given first aid on the docks and returned to help fight the flames.

The extent of the damage was not yet known, but it was expected to be heavy. Cause of the blaze was undetermined.

Five Tugs In Action

Navy, marine and army firefighters and seven fire tugs poured water into the fire, which spread along the submarine side of the naval base, starting at 10:50 a. m (4:20 p. m., EST).

Oil lines under the wharf burst, adding fuel to the fire enveloping the oil-soaked asphalt-topped structure.

Several persons were overcome by smoke but there were no reports of serious injuries.

A dense smoke pall hung over the navy yard and spread over nearby Hickman Field, where the army fighter plane Betty Jo was poised for a scheduled takeoff today on a flight to New York.

The destroyer tender Sierra and supply ship Oberon got up steam and pulled into the channel without damage while civilian workers removed more than 5,000 tons of supplies from a threatened warehouse

Signs Decree To Expel Luciano

HAVANA, Feb. 28—(AP)—A decree expelling Charles (Lucky) Luciano from Cuba was signed Thursday by Pres. Ramon Grau San Martin and the former New York vice chieftain will be sent back to Italy as soon as ship transportation can be arranged, Minister of Interior Alfred Pequeno said.

It was reported unofficially that Luciano told police he did not desire to return to Italy by plane because he wanted to avoid being "molested" at any American stops en route. He came to Cuba by plane by way of Brazil last October.

Pequeno declared that Luciano would be held incommunicado at the Tisconia immigration camp until the government finds a ship that will take him back to Italy. Luciano was deported to Italy by the U. S. government after Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York communted a 30 to 50 year prison sentence imposed in 1936 for pandering.

Government circles discounted reports that Luciano may attempt to present a habeas corpus appeal. These sources said such an appeal would meet with rejection on grounds that it would be against a government measure.

Pequeno said the expulsion decree was based on Luciano's previous police record and was promulgated because his presence in Cuba was "undesirable."

Armed Men Rob Jewelry Store

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 28—(AP)—Two unmasked men armed with sawed off shotguns robbed the Laster Jewelry store in the heart of the business district here of several thousand dollars in valuables at 3 p. m. Thursday.

H. A. Laster, proprietor of the store, said the two men ordered him and a customer to lie on the floor, where they were bound with wire. Then the men began filling their pockets with watches and rings.

The robbers left the men with their ankles bound and walked from the store with the loot.

Laster said it included some 60 new watches, about 32 diamond rings, a rack of customers' watches, about $400 in cash and some $3,000 in bonds taken from a safe.

"They cleaned me out," moaned Laster.

Russian Liner Docks Thursday

NEW YORK, Feb. 28—(AP)—The Russian liner Rossia docked on Thursday at Staten island — the first passenger liner under the Soviet flag to enter New York harbor.

The 7,600-ton vessel, the former German liner Patria, carried 279 passengers and a crew of 153, including 50 women, most of whom are stewardesses and clerks on the ship which sailed Feb. 6 from Batum on the Black Sea.

Capt. Elizbar Gogitielze, 40-year old master of the ship, invited American newsmen aboard the vessel, passed out Vodka and offered a toast to the American people

In fluent English, Gogitielze said:

"Russian people love the American people. We do not forget what America did for us in the war."

Precautions On Truman Trip

Key Men In The Secret Service At Mexico City

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28—(AP)—The "advance men" have about completed their work—the Truman travelling show is ready to take to the road (or rather the air lanes) again Sunday.

When the President moves, it's not simply a question of boarding a plane and proceeding to its destination.

It's like, as Mr. Truman himself once remarked, "moving a circus."

When his big C-54, commonly called the "Sacred Cow" sets down at the Central Airport at Mexico City next Monday morning, vast precaution will have been taken to preserve his safety and satisfy protocol.

Preparations for the visit started shortly after Mr. Truman announced his decision to visit the Mexican capital. The White House secret service detail, the army signal corps detachment, the state department and transportation officials got down to work. This is routine, wherever the President travels.

Map Security Plans

Key secret service agents moved into Mexico City to map security arrangements and inspect the airport, the American embassy, the highways and streets over which the President will travel.

Stanley Woodward, state department protocol officer and an associate, went along to look over preparations for dinners, luncheons and receptions in order to brush up the President and others of his party on what will be expected of them.

Dewey Long, White House transportation officer, has just returned to Washington after making arrangements for the transportation and hotel accommodations of 27 reporters and photographers and the secret service detail, as well as communication facilities for transmission of news.

These arrangements will have to be duplicated at Waco, Texas, where the President will stop Thursday for a speech and an honorary degree en route back from Mexico, and at Key West, Fla., San Juan, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands where Mr. Truman will visit on a vacation trip and fleet inspection starting March 8.

Most of the arrangements for Mr. Truman's stop Sunday at Grandview, Mo., for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Martha E. Truman, 94, have been left to the secret service at Kansas City. His frequent visits home have set a pattern for security measures in Missouri.

Three black bullet-proof limousines moved out of Washington several days ago by box car. Two were headed for Mexico City. The President will ride in one of them and a heavily-armed secret service escort will use the other.

The third car will be for use of the Presidential party at Waco.

The secret service even goes into the kitchens to look over the food preparations on occasions when the President is to eat.

Deaths By Heart Trouble Mount

CHICAGO, Feb. 28—(AP)—An 18½ per cent increase in the Missouri death rate from heart disease between 1940 and 1944 was reported Thursday by a Research Council for Economic Security, a fact-finding foundation supported by some 150 private industries.

The council prefaced its report on Missouri heart fatalities with the statement that the rise was based upon a high percentage of persons in the older age groups left by the exodus of young persons in the armed services, and, therefore, not indicative of a general upward trend in heart deaths.

The 1944 death mortality rate found by the council was 350.3 for each 100,000 population, compared with 296.3 in 1940. The 18.2 per cent jump in Missouri compared with a 7.3 percent increase for the United States—or a rise from 294 in 100,000 persons in 1940 to 315.4 in 1944.

In other mortality rates, Missouri showed a decrease, infant death per 1,000 live births dropping from 47 in 1940 to 37.6 in 1944. Tuberculosis deaths for each 100,000 people declined from 46.5 to 41.4.

Deaths from contagious diseases decreased greatly, from 7.1 in 1940 to 4.0 in 1944.

The time required by an average person to act after a signal is given increases from 60 hundreths of a second at age 20-29 to 66 hundredths of a second for ages above 60.

Nineteen Hurt In Street Car Fire

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 28—(AP)—Nineteen persons were injured, one believed seriously, as panic-stricken passengers leaped from a moving street car which caught fire in suburban Ensley Thursday.

Nine ambulances took the injured to St. Vincent's hospital, where attaches said most suffered superficial burns or slight injuries in jumping from windows and doors of the car.

Mrs. John Moore of Tarrant City, with possible back injuries, was believed to be most seriously hurt.

Assistant Fire Chief J. F. Lloyd said the fire apparently was started by a short circuit near the motorman's controls.

Marshall Subpoena Recalled

Rep. Bradley Acts After Desired Information On Ships Received

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—A house subpoena was issued today for Secretary of State Marshall but recalled when the state department furnished the information that was sought and Rep. Bradley (R-Mich) rebuked a colleague who started the fuss.

Rep. Weichel (R-Ohio), chairman of a house merchant marine sub-committee investigating the status of 95 ships lend-leased to Russia and not returned, issued the subpoena. It called for Marshall to appear tomorrow with all the correspondence with Moscow on the subject.

But Bradley chairman of the full committee, stepped in with a crack about headline-hunting and called a halt before the house sergeant at arms, William F. Russell, could serve it.

Later Bradley formally ordered it cancelled and Weichel said he would issue no subpoenas in future without the approval of Bradley and Speaker Martin (R-Mass).

This came about after Marshall spoke by telephone with Weichel and sent Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson to the capitol with information Weichel sought.

Bradley expressed regret Weichell had issued the subpoena.

At a news conference in the presence of Weichel, Bradley said: "I am very sorry he issued it because General Marshall doesn't know a damn thing about these Russian ships."

Deplored Action

Bradley said Speaker Martin also deplored the action.

Weichel told Bradley his action was not intended as a reflection on Marshall, but was "just a formal procedure" to obtain records the committee has been trying to get for two weeks.

"It's a formal way of making headlines, too," Bradley retorted.

Marshall left his office for lunch shortly before 1 p. m. apparently without knowledge that he was being sought. Asked by reporters as he entered the state department elevator whether he had been served with the house committee subpoena, he said, "What subpoena?"

Acheson, who accompanied him, said, "I'll tell you all about it," and they departed.

Bradley told reporters "General Marshall has a lot of other things on his mind more important than these damn ships."

Want to Study Note

Bradley said he ordered suspension of this subpoena "at least until after Mr. Weichel and I have studied the contests of the Russian note.

The committee chairman said Acheson told him the state department did not desire to make public the contents of Russia's reply to the U. S. query on lend-lease ships, "because the Soviet note discussed other things besides the ships."

No Fuss Unless Necessary

"We don't want to start any damn international fuss with the Russians—unless it's absolutely necessary," Bradley said, adding that the subpoena "will be issued only over my dead body—today."

The subpoena directed the secretary to appear before the committee at 9:30 a. m. (EST) tomorrow with "all books, papers, communications and other memoranda covering the matter of approximately 100 merchant ships owned by the United States now in the possession of the Russian government, the communications to Russia and the replies of Russia."

(In view of the constitutional separation of powers between the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the government, congressional sources said there was a question whether Marshall could be compelled to comply with a of House subpoena. When Secretary of Interior Krug was subpoenaed by the House Surplus Property committee last session, he appeared before the committee but said he was doing so "voluntarily." Veteran congressional employes said the Krug subpoena was the first issued by a house committee for a cabinet officer in a score of years.)

Still Try For Child's Custody

NEOSHO, Mo., Feb. 28—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humbarger, of Toledo, O., will remain in Neosho in an effort to gain legal custody of 14-month-old Donald Waltman, their attorney Herbert Douglas said today.

The couple was freed of kidnapping charges arising from their possession of the tot after Wayne Slankard, prosecuting attorney, said the mother in prefering charges had misrepresented the facts.

Douglas said he would appear in juvenile court for them and plead that the Humbargers be permitted to adopt the child.

"They are poor, honest Americans," Douglas said. "Their good name has been damaged by the kidnapping charge that was filed against them. It is too bad the child cannot be returned to them immediately.

"They have received a large number of letters from all over the country offering assistance."

Local Doctor Talks on 'Care Of the Heart'

Part of Campaign Recently Launched To Educate Public

As a part of the national campaign recently launched to educate the public on "Care of the Heart," Dr. Joseph W. Maunders, local physician gave fellow members of the Sedalia Kiwanis club at the Thursday noon luncheon statistics that revealed death from heart disease has been on the increase.

The speaker was presented by Bert O. Hathaway, general program chairman.

Dr. Maunders said that heart disease ranks high among the major causes of death which is not always confined to older age groups. Rheumatic heart disease in many instances can be traced to one or more attacks of rheumatic fever in children between the ages of 6 and 12 years.

The speaker said that many persons past youthful years develop an unwarranted dread of heart disease. The national campaign is directed toward relieving this fear by promoting first, an understanding of the causes of heart disease; second, the idea that it frequently is possible for the person with heart disease to live a full, rich life.

"Your Heart" Booklet

In connection with Dr. Maunders' talk, Kiwanian Tom Kennan, manager for the Metropolitan Life Insurance company distributed to each member a booklet "Your Heart" available to anyone desiring it.

President Pinkney Miller announced there would be a meeting of the board of directors and committee chairmen in Bothwell hotel Friday noon, when chairmen will report on February activities.

Guests were Guy T. Callendar with C. R. Kilbury and Vic Eisenstein with the Rev. H. U. Campbell.

Flock To Clinic For Influenza Shots

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 27—(AP)—The threat of an influenza epidemic at the University of Missouri appeared to be on the wane today.

Dr. Dan G. Stine, student health director, reported only 27 new cases today as against 50 the previous day. These were cases admitted to the student hospital.

Meanwhile other students flocked to the clinic for influenza shots.

Dr. Stine reported that of the 3,000 students who had received the shots none had contracted the disease.

Local high schools today also reported fewer absences because of illness.

Betty Jo, Fighter Plane Takes Air At Honolulu

HONOLULU, Feb. 27—(AP)—The army's P-82 fighter plane Betty Jo took off at 3:05 p. m. today, Honolulu time (8:35 p. m. EST) in an attempt to reach New York, nonstop.

The twin-engine, long-range fighter plane was loaded with more than seven tons of gasoline for the 4,978-mile haul across the Pacific and the continental United States.

The destination was La Guardia Field, New York.

At the controls were two slim young army fliers, Lt. Col. Robert E. Thacker, El Centro, Calif., the pilot, and Lt. John M. Ard, Inglewood, Calif., the co-pilot.

Bears Heavy Load

The specially-built plane, bearing aloft the heaviest load ever carried by a fighter, lifted its wheels smoothly from the runway at Hickam Field.

The fliers originally had planned to take off Feb. 15, but a gas tank leak and bad weather forced repeated postponements.

Both young pilots, were confident before the takeoff they would make good their prediction to arrive New York within 14 hours.

"The ship perfect and never in better condition," Thacker said. "I feel in my bones we can't miss."

"This time we've got to go," grinned Ard, "because we are all out of clean laundry."

More Sugar To Be Alloted

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—OPA officials said today that larger sugar rations will be given hotels, restaurants and other eating places when they apply for their May-June allotments.

The increase, it was said, "will be consistent with other ration increases."

The officials said that sugar allocations will be boosted for nearly all industrial and institutional users as a result of the increased supplies allowed the United States for 1947 by the international emergency food council.

This segment of sugar users will begin getting their increased rations at the beginning of individual allotment periods, ranging from March 1 to May 1, OPA said.

The agency added it will follow this procedure:

Industrial users, such as bakers, soft drink bottlers and candy makers, will have their rations increased April 1 from 60 to 75 per cent of their base period (usually their 1941 use). On the same date, preserve manufacturers will get an increase from 55 to 75 per cent of base (usually 1944 use).

Effective March 1, bulk sweetened condensed milk producers will have their allotments increased from 100 to 110 percent of their base (a selected period of operation beginning with 1943).

Vessel Strikes Mine, Sinks

ATHENS, Feb. 27.—(AP)—An auxiliary sailing vessel struck a mine two miles off Capa Pappa, west of Patrai (Patras) today and sank. Fourteen passengers and five crewmen were missing.

Ask Assurance To End Strike

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 27—(AP)—The President of the Buffalo Teachers Federation said tonight that the city's 98 strike-bound schools "could be open by Monday" with official assurances that state-proposed pay increases would be effective this year.

Raymond J. Ast declared in a prepared radio statement that today's report of Governor Dewey's special education committee "on the surface appears to be attractive."

He asserted that what the 2,400 striking teachers needed was "to feel they have something on which to act."

"We must have assurance from the legislature that they will act on legislation to incorporate the committee's proposals into law for 1947-48," said Ast. "We must have assurance from the governor that he will sign the bill."

Dock Fire At Pearl Harbor

Sailors And Marines Battle It Three Hours

PEARL HARBOR, Feb. 27—(AP)—An oil-fed fire that swept suddenly over a quarter-mile long wooden dock at Pearl Harbor was brought under control today by 500 sailors and marines after a three-hour battle.

Twenty-five firefighters were overcome by smoke and taken to navy hospital for emergency treatment. None was believed in serious condition.

The dense, oily smoke, rising from one of the worst blazes in Pearl Harbor's history, overcame many others, but they were given first aid on the docks and returned to help fight the flames.

The extent of the damage was not yet known, but it was expected to be heavy. Cause of the blaze was undetermined.

Five Tugs In Action

Navy, marine and army firefighters and seven fire tugs poured water into the fire, which spread along the submarine side of the naval base, starting at 10:50 a. m. (4:20 p. m., EST).

Oil lines under the wharf burst, adding fuel to the fire enveloping the oil-soaked, asphalt-topped structure.

Several persons were overcome by smoke but there were no reports of serious injuries.

A dense smoke pall hung over the navy yard and spread over nearby Hickman Field, where the army fighter plane Betty Jo was poised for a scheduled takeoff today on a flight to New York.

The destroyer tender Sierra and supply ship Oberon got up steam and pulled into the channel without damage while civilian workers removed more than 5,000 tons of supplies from a threatened warehouse.

Armed Men Rob Jewelry Store

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 27—(AP)—Two unmasked men armed with sawed off shotguns robbed the Laster Jewelry store in the heart of the business district here of several thousand dollars in valuables at 3 p. m. today.

H. A. Laster, proprietor of the store, said the two men ordered him and a customer to lie on the floor, where they were bound with wire. Then the men began filling their pockets with watches and rings.

The robbers left the men with their ankles bound and walked from the store with the loot.

Laster said it included some 60 new watches, about 32 diamond rings, a rack of customers' watches, about $400 in cash and some $3,000 in bonds taken from a safe.

"They cleaned me out," moaned Laster.

Precautions On Truman Trip

Key Men In The Secret Service At Mexico City

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—The "advance men" have about completed their work—the Truman travelling show is ready to take to the road (or rather the air lanes) again Sunday.

When the President moves, it's not simply a question of boarding a plane and proceeding to its destination.

It's like, as Mr. Truman himself once remarked, "moving a circus."

When his big C-54, commonly called the "Sacred Cow" sets down at the Central Airport at Mexico City next Monday morning, vast precaution will have been taken to preserve his safety and satisfy protocol.

Preparations for the visit started shortly after Mr. Truman announced his decision to visit the Mexican capital. The White House secret service detail, the army signal corps detachment, the state department and transportation officials got down to work. This is routine, wherever the President travels.

Map Security Plans

Key secret service agents moved into Mexico City to map security arrangements and inspect the airport, the American embassy, the highways and streets over which the President will travel.

Stanley Woodward, state department protocol officer and an associate, went along to look over preparations for dinners, luncheons and receptions in order to brush up the President and others of his party on what will be expected of them.

Dewey Long, White House transportation officer, has just returned to Washington after making arrangements for the transportation and hotel accommodations of 27 reporters and photographers and the secret service detail, as well as communication facilities for transmission of news.

These arrangements will have to be duplicated at Waco, Texas, where the President will stop Thursday for a speech and an honorary degree en route back from Mexico, and at Key West, Fla., San Juan, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands where Mr. Truman will visit on a vacation trip and fleet inspection starting March 8.

Most of the arrangements for Mr. Truman's stop Sunday at Grandview, Mo., for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Martha E. Truman, 94, have been left to the secret service at Kansas City. His frequent visits home have set a pattern for security measures in Missouri.

Three black bullet-proof limousines moved out of Washington several days ago by box car. Two were headed for Mexico City. The President will ride in one of them and a heavily-armed secret service escort will use the other.

The third car will be for use of the Presidential party at Waco.

The secret service even goes into the kitchens to look over the food preparations on occasions when the President is to eat.

Fire Damages The Blankenship Home

Thursday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock the fire companies made a run to the home of Reuben Blankenship, 409 North Park avenue, where a blaze originating from an oil stove in the kitchen caused about $100 damage to the home and about $50 to the contents.

At 3:45 o'clock the companies made a run to Ninth street and Arlington avenue where a grass fire was in progress.

Bothwell Hospital Notes

Mrs. Helen Self, 320 West Broadway and Charles Wayne Williams, 6 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, Green Ridge, admitted for medical treatment.

Mrs. C. H. Colaflower, 1302 South Kentucky, admitted for surgery.

Mrs. Audie Dillard, Leeton, dismissed.

Otto Upton, Warsaw; Mrs. Troy Dillard of Leeton; James G. Simmons, rural route 4, Sedalia; Mrs. W. D. Dunham and daughter of Hughesville; Mrs. Leonard Sigman, rural route 2, Sedalia; Mrs. Howard Winfrey, 224 South Vermont avenue and George W. Blair, 1105 West Eleventh street were dismissed.

258 New Firms to Missouri

State Department Of Resources and Development Claims Partial Credit

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 27—(AP)—The Department of Resources and Development, claiming partial credit for starting 258 new Missouri factories outside metropolitan areas during 1946, asked the House Appropriations committee today for a big increase in its operating funds.

Hugh Denney, director of the department, said the new firms are hiring a total of 42,000 employes whose estimated sales taxes to the state alone will total $735,000 luring the current year.

The department requested $748,515 for the coming fiscal year's operations, including $200,000 for advertising the industrial and recreational advantages to be found in Missouri. The governor's recommendation cut the total to $300,000, with $50,000 for advertising. A bill before the committee calls for a total of $320,000 for advertising.

New Request

A new request for $31,000 was offered today to give the department funds to pay the state's part of a new federal-state study of the upper Osage river basin.

The study was authorized two weeks ago after a conference between Gov. Phil M. Donnelly, who issued a recent policy statement opposing the federally approved Osceola reservoir, and Gen. Lewis A. Pick, co-author of the Pick-Sloan Missouri basin plan. The Osceola dam is part of the Pick-Sloan recommendations for development and flood control in the Missouri river basin.

Denny said state representatives had asked his department frequently to issue recreational and industrial pamphlets on their particular sections of the state.

"It's up to you gentlemen whether you will get them," he said.

Few Increases Granted

Meanwhile a member of the house committee on appropriations said today only a few slight increases would be granted in appropriations for operation of executive departments during the coming fiscal year.

Asking that he not be quoted by name, the representative said the committee decided in closed session to ignore requests for large increases. One of those was Attorney General J. E. Taylor's for $100,000 in a special fund to prosecute anti-trust cases.

Without any particular mention of Taylor's request, the representative declared, the committee seemed of the opinion the Democratic attorney general wanted to prosecute cases of monopoly merely to build his political fences for the 1948 elections.

Should be Prosecuted

The committee member, a Republican, said he felt such cases should be prosecuted but he believed it should be done by the federal justice department rather than by a political office holder in Missouri.

Several weeks ago Taylor enlisted the aid of the justice department in Washington to break up what he believes to be monopolies in the state. Yesterday he told the committee the time was ripe, "in fact, rotten ripe," to prosecute anti-trust law violators.

The committee was scheduled to continue its hearings into the monetary needs of the executive departments today.

President Opens Red Cross Drive Tonight

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—President Truman is scheduled to open the 1947 Red Cross fund campaign tomorrow night with a four-network broadcast at 10 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

The agency is seeking $60,000,000 for its operations this year.

Find Wreckage of China Airliner

SHANGHAI, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Wreckage of a China National Aviation Corporation airliner which disappeared January 25 en route to Chungking from Hong Kong has been found 100 miles east of Chungkung with 19 aboard dead, CNAC announced today.

The only American aboard was the pilot, James M. Blackmore, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Living Costs Fluctuate

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The bureau of labor statistics reported today its cost of living index showed a .1 of one per cent decline in mid-January for the first time in ten months.

That, however, was before wholesale prices started another rise which carried them to a new postwar peak February 15. The bureau has not yet translated those increases into its consumers price figures.

The mid-January consumers index stood at 151.1, compared with 153.3 in mid-December. The figures are based on the 1935-39 level of 100.

The January 15 index was still 18.3 per cent higher than in February, 1946, the last previous month to show a decline.

Russian Liner Docks Thursday

NEW YORK, Feb. 27—(AP)—The Russian liner Rossia docked today at Staten Island—the first passenger liner under the Soviet flag to enter New York harbor.

The 17,600-ton vessel, the former German liner Patria, carried 279 passengers and a crew of 153, including 50 women, most of whom are stewardesses and clerks on the ship which sailed Feb. 6 from Batum on the Black Sea.

Capt. Elizbar Gogitielze, 40-year old master of the ship, invited American newsmen aboard the vessel, passed out Vodka and offered a toast to the American people.

In fluent English, Gogitielze said:

"Russian people love the American people. We do not forget what America did for us in the war."

Four Power Pact Only Will Curb Germany

Is Opinion of Foreign Secretary Bevin, He Stated Today

LONDON, Feb. 27—(AP)—Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin said today that he and the foreign ministers of U. S., France and the Soviet Union would discuss at Moscow a four-power pact to prevent any new aggression in Europe.

Initiating a House of Commons debate on foreign policy, Bevin said he was not sure that Germany, even after defeats in two great wars, knew the real meaning of defeat and recognized the stupidity of war as an object of policy.

Only four-power agreement will make it possible to curb Germany and to re-educate her in the ways of democracy.

"There is no other way," he declared, but he added that Britain "should not expect too much from us at Moscow" because "we have terrific difficulties to face."

Beyond Byrnes Plan

Bevin's mention of a four-power anti-aggression pact apparently went beyond the proposal made by Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes last year. Byrnes urged last May that the four countries enter into a treaty to keep Germany demilitarized for 25 years.

Bevin told the Commons he hoped the pending Anglo-French treaty would be signed soon. He said Britain's proposal for revising the Anglo-Soviet treaty, as suggested by Premier Stalin, would be presented to the Russians in the near future.

On the 1942 Anglo-Russian treaty—which the Soviet press once accused him of repudiating—Bevin said:

"I am extremely glad that the desire is shown to prolong the alliance on the basis of closer and cordial relations between the two countries."

Cordial Relations

Bevin made a single reference to the storm aroused in the U. S. by his charge last Tuesday that President Truman wrecked negotiations for a Palestine settlement by issuing a statement during the 1946 congressional election campaign.

"On all questions," the foreign minister said with emphasis, "our relations with the U. S. are of a most cordial character. We shall not allow any wedge to be driven between our two countries."

Shots Between U.S. and Russia

SEOUL, Feb. 27—(AP)—Korean quarters asserted today that U. S. and Russian troops exchanged shots Tuesday along the line between their occupation zones but American Intelligence authorities dismissed it as a minor incident which had been "highly exaggerated."

Intelligence officers said a U. S. border patrol rushed to Paekchon, about two miles inside the American zone, after receiving a report that seven Russians were firing rifles into the town. The patrol saw two Russians hurriedly leaving Paekchon as it approached.

The Korean version said 28 Russians and 11 Americans fired at each other for 14 hours ending at midnight and that four Soviet fighter planes appeared briefly over the area. No casualties were reported.

These sources said the following day Korean police from the Soviet zone and Korean police from the American zone fired at each other for 20 minutes in the same general area. They asserted the shooting began when the north Koreans tried to kidnap a Korean from the southern zone.

Food Need In Germany Is Serious

Hoover Makes Recommendation Of $475,000,000 To Be Repaid

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—Herbert Hoover recommended to President Truman today that the United States pay $475,500,000 for food for German civilians in the 18 months beginning last Jan. 1 as an essential contribution to peace and order in the western world.

He urged that this sum not be "an irrecoverable expenditure and that it be stipulated in all peace arrangements that the money be repaid from any future German net exports "before any other payments to other nations of any kind."

Such repayments thus would come ahead of reparations.

Conditions Very Grim

Hoover made the proposal in a formal report to President Truman after investigating relief needs in central Europe. He expanded on it by telling reporters at the White House today that conditions all over Europe are the worst in 50 years.

"Pretty grim," he summed up.

He said railroads are still disorganized and that "everybody is cold" in northern and central Europe, where frozen canals and rivers do not permit shipment of coal even by barge.

Hoover said he will make another report to Mr. Truman probably next week, on Austrian needs and on how to develop German industries to the point that Germany can pay for food furnished by the United States and Great Britain.

On capitol hill, Chairman Bridges (R-NH) said the senate appropriations committee would want a detailed explanation by the former President before it votes relief funds.

In a report on his recent economic mission to Germany and Austria, the former President said "it may come as a great shock to American taxpayers that, having won the war over Germany, we are now faced for some years with large expenditures for relief for these people.

"Indeed, it is something new in human history for the conqueror to undertake. Whatever the policies might have been that would have avoided this expense, we now are faced with it. And we are faced with it until the export industries of Germany can be sufficiently revived for their food. The first necessity for such a revival is sufficient food upon which to maintain vitality to work.

To Meet Burdens

"Entirely aside from any humanitarian feelings for this mass of people, if we want peace; if we want to preserve the safety and health of our army of occupation; if we want to save the expense of even larger military forces to preserve order; if we want to reduce the size and expense of our army of occupation—I can see no other course but to meet the burdens I have here outlined."

Hoover estimated that supplies which Great Britain and this country would have to furnish for the 41,700,000 German civilians in their combined occupation zones would cost $384,000,000 for the first six months of this year and $567,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning next July 1. Each nation would pay half of the costs.

The former Republican President returned from Europe last Sunday after spending three weeks abroad. President Truman asked him to undertake the survey after American military government authorities had requested huge sums for food for civilians.

President Truman's budget for the current fiscal year carries $556,000,000 for food in all occupied countries, including Japan, and $645,000,000 is proposed in the budget for the 1947-48 year. A deficiency appropriation of $300,000,000 for the 1946-47 year now is before congress. The war department said it could not break down the figures for each occupied country.

Hoover, who said he would submit his report on Austria later, made an around-the-world trip to survey food conditions at Mr. Truman's behest last spring.

Hoover made plain that he believed amounts already spent on relief for German civilians and to be spent in the future "should not be an irrecoverable expenditure to our two governments."

Red Cross Corner

The preliminary activities of the Red Cross Fund Campaign are steadily increasing. The office is now a combination assembly line, information center, clearing house, with a few other things thrown in. It is an interesting commentary on the efficiency of the Staff that all routine business is being taken care of, the problems of servicemen, ex-servicemen and their families continue to get to first base, while the Drive problems are being served with neatness and dispatch. We have always maintained in this column that Red Crossers soon learn to do more than one thing at a time, working so to speak with the left hand on one project while the right hand carries on with another project. A successful campaign is the result of successful ground work. The drive slogan of 1947 has been put into one word "GIVE."

Talk On Conservation

The morning session was held at the Pettis county court house with J. A. Harvey, chairman of the county Triple A committee, speaking on the 1947 agriculture conservation program. He outlined the practices on which payments would be made in 1947. Mr. Harvey stated that the payments available to Pettis county farmers in 1947 would be $114,290. These payments could be earned through the following thirteen practices: Contour intertilled crops; contour seeding; construction of farm ponds; construction of terrace outlets; construction of terraces; application of agricultural limestone; application of fertilizer; construction of diversion terraces; eradication of noxious weeds on crop or pasture land; green manure crop; construction of farm drainage ditches; the seeding of lagoons with alfalfa, red clover, sweet clover and alsike clover; and the establishing or improving of permament pasture land.

The Rev. Fred J. King gave the invocation.

Stressed Cooperation

Abe Silverman president of the Chambe of Commerce presided and gave an address of welcome and said in part, "I would like to welcome you to take a more active part in the actual running and management of the Chamber of Commerce. There has always been splendid coperation between the farmers and the business men of the city—as is evidenced today. I would like to propose an interlocking membership between us—better still—an interlocking directorship. I firmly believe that you county business men should have your representatives sitting on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, helping to formulate the policies of that body."

"This can be accomplished very simply and very easily, by your taking a more active part in the Chamber of Commerce and in order to do this you would take out memberships in the Chamber of Commerce, your chamber, because it is working for your interest."

D. S. Lamm, then gave a talk, stressing the importance of balanced farming program and how it would develop a better community.

In the afternoon program, J. Ross Fleetwood, extension specialist in field crops, centered his discussion on the use of fertilizer, crop varieties and disease and pasture improvement.

The consensus in most quarters was that more new cars are needed to bring any real relief. And railroad spokesmen predicted the situation would get worse before it improves.

Hoover, who headed the American relief administration after the First World War, said similar arrangements in connection with relief administration after the First World War, said similar arrangements in connection with relief grants to Germany were made after that conflict and that the grants were repaid.

The former President painted a gloomy picture of the present economy in the Reich. He said an expert with his mission visited Italy, France, Belgium, Holland and Britain and found the nutritional condition in those countries "nearly pre-war normal."

"Those who believe in vengeance and the punishment of a great mass of Germans not concerned in the Nazi conspiracy," the report said, can now have no misgivings, for all of them—in food, warmth and shelter—have been sunk to the lowest level known in a hundred years of western history.

"If western civilization is to survive in Europe, it must also survive in Germany. And it must be built into a cooperative member of that civilization. That indeed is the hope of any lasting peace."

The report pointed out that Great Britain and the United States planned to increase the present normal 1,550 calories-a-day for civilians in their zones by adding 250 calories "at some undetermined date."

Signs Decree To Expel Luciano

HAVANA, Feb. 27—(AP)—A decree expelling Charles (Lucky) Luciano from Cuba was signed today by President Ramon Grau San Martin and the former New York vice chieftain will be sent back to Italy as soon as ship transportation can be arranged, Minister of Interior Alfred Pequeno said.

It was reported unofficially that Luciano told police he did not desire to return to Italy by plane because he wanted to avoid being "molested" at any American stops en route. He came to Cuba by plane by way of Brazil last October.

Pequeno declared that Luciano would be held incommunicado at the Tisconia immigration camp until the government finds a ship that will take him back to Italy. Luciano was deported to Italy by the U. S. government after Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York communted a 30 to 50 year prison sentence imposed in 1936 for pandering.

Government circles discounted reports that Luciano may attempt to present a habeas corpus appeal. These sources said such an appeal would meet with rejection on grounds that it would be against a government measure.

Pequeno said the expulsion decree was based on Luciano's previous police record and was promulgated because his presence in Cuba was "undesirable."

Deaths By Heart Trouble Mount

CHICAGO, Feb. 27—(AP)—An 18½ per cent increase in the Missouri death rate from heart disease between 1940 and 1944 was reported today by the Research Council for Economic Security, a fact-finding foundation supported by some 150 private industries.

The council prefaced its report on Missouri heart fatalities with the statement that the rise was based upon a high percentage of persons in the older age groups left by the exodus of young persons in the armed services, and, therefore, not indicative of a general upward trend in heart deaths.

The 1944 death mortality rate found by the council was 350.3 for each 100,000 population, compared with 296.3 in 1940. The 18.2 per cent jump in Missouri compared with a 7.3 percent increase for the United States—or a rise from 294 in 100,000 persons in 1940 to 315.4 in 1944.

In other mortality rates, Missouri showed a decrease, infant death per 1,000 live births dropping from 47 in 1940 to 37.6 in 1944. Tuberculosis deaths for each 100,000 people declined from 46.5 to 41.4.

Deaths from contagious diseases decreased greatly, from 7.1 in 1940 to 4.0 in 1944.

Welcome for Royal Family

PORT ELIABETH, South Africa, Feb. 27—(AP)— Chanting witch doctors and beating drums welcomed the British royal family today to outlying New Brighton, where neat, modernized houses have been provided for the natives.

Painted Kaffirs, black dancers in leopard skins and Bantu hymn singers also arrayed themselves before King George VI and Queen Elizabeth and the Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose.

The royal family passed by the medicine men and women, whose faces and bodies were stained in traditional tribal fashion and adorned with skins, feathers, beads and vast hairdresses.

In contrast, the Bantu psalm singers all wave palm branches as they stand before the Bantu Church of Christ.

Lava Steadily Rolls Onward

PALERMO, Sicily, Feb. 27.—(AP)—A molten flood of lava which has been boiling out of a new crater in Mount Etna since Tuesday rolled steadily onward today toward Passo Pisciaro, the first mountain hamlet in its path.

(A Catilna dispatch to ANSA, the Italian news agency, later in the morning quoted the pilot of an Italian observation plane which flew over the area from Bari today as saying that the lava flow was cutting off to the left of Passo Piscaiaro, and that the village, for the time being at least, appeared to be out of danger.)

The prefects of neighboring towns, as well as the Archbishop of Palermo, Ernesto Cardinal Ruffini, were near the scene, assisting residents who were ready to flee if the fiery stream was not arrested.

For Passo Pisciaro, an outlying part of Castiglione Di Silicia on the volcano's northeastern slope, there were only an estimated three or four days of life remaining at the lava's present measured rate of advance.

Smoke Obscures Scene

Smoke from the molten streams still obscured the scene and barred accurate observations.

The population of Passo Pisciaro, 2,200 feet, was reported to be about 2,200 feet, was rported to be about 1,000, and the population of Castiglione Di Sicilia, at about 2,000 feet, about 10,000. The larger town was not expected to be endangered by the lava.

Suit Filed Asks $10,000 Damages

A suit for $10,000 damages was filed in circuit court Thursday by Mrs. Birdie Riley against Guy A. Thompson, trustee of the Missouri Pacific railroad company, a corporation. The petition stated the plaintiff was the wife of Charles F. Riley who lost his life on December 25, 1944 in an automobile-train accident on the old Sedalia-Dresden road. It further alleged that the train was going west while the car was heading north, and it is alleged that the alarm bell on the crossing did not work and the car window on the right side had been broken and had been replaced with cardboard and Mr. Riley could not see the oncoming train.

The petition also states that Mr. Riley, a farmer, is survived by two minor children and that a suit was filed within six months of his death and the plaintiff took involuntary non-suit and that this suit was filed with one year of the non-suit.

The plaintiff asks for the sum of $10,000 damages and costs. Attorneys for the plaintiff are Lamm and Barnett.

Abduction Story Turns Out Hoax

LONG BEACH, Calif., Feb. 27—(AP)—Police announced today that a pretty, 17-year old high school girl's story of being abducted by a man, bound, gagged, then disrobed and tortured, much in the manner of Los Angeles' recent "Black Dahlia" case, has turned out to be a hoax.

Juvenile authorities said that Jacquelin Mae Stang, daughter of a Long Beach businessman, had confessed that she herself had inflicted the cuts and burns on her body which she told police were the work of her assailant.

"She admits her whole story is a hoax," Juvenile Bureau Director Joseph H. Kennick announced after authorities had found discrepancies in two stories she told.

"Could it be despondency over differences with your boy friend that caused you to tell this story?" a juvenile officer asked Miss Stang.

"It could be," she answered.

The girl was taken to the city health physician's office late today for a physical examination. A police physician said she had not been raped.

Formal Blame To Japs for 'Hellship' Trip

During Which 1,300 Of 1,619 Prisoners Aboard Perished

TOKYO, Feb. 27—(AP)—Allied headquarters' legal section formally accused eight Japanese today of responsibility for a "hellship" voyage from Manila to Japan during which more than 1,300 of the 1,619 prisoners aboard perished.

"No cases can compare with the torment and torture suffered by our soldiers aboard the Oryoku Maru, Brazil Maru and Enoura Maru on the voyage from Manila to Japan in December, 1944, and January, 1945," Alva C. Carpenter, chief of the legal section, said.

The defendants, including former Lt. Junsaburo Toshino, commander of the prisoner of war escort guard, and Shunosuke Wada, interpreter who commanded in his absence, will go on trial in Yokohama March 6 before a U. S. Eighth army tribunal.

The Japanese loaded 30 Allied Nationals and 1,589 American prisoners — 1,100 of them officers mostly of field grade rank — from Bilibid prison in Manila into three holds of the Oryoku Maru, the legal section said. This is what happened after the prison ship set out for Japan:

Allied Planes Attacked

Allied planes attacked. A direct bomb hit killed 100 men and the ship was abandoned. But even as the prisoners fought to save themselves, guards sprayed the holds with machine gun fire and poured bullets at men who reached rafts.

Survivors were assembled at San Fernando, Philippine islands. Wada and Toshino asked for the 15 sickest men to be hospitalized in Manila. Instead, the men were driven to a cemetery where they were decapitated and bayoneted.

Loaded aboard the Brazil Maru and Enoura Maru, survivors underwent further hardships en route to Japan. Allied bombing killed 300 more. Forty or 50 men went out of their minds.

"There were 450 walking skeletons left when the Brazil Maru arrived in Moji, Japan, Jan. 29," the legal section said.

Task Fleet Out Of Kwajalein

WITH TASK FORCE IN THE CENTRAL PACIFIC, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Under simulated battle conditions, 14 warships of task force 38 moved out of Kwajalein lagoon today and pointed east for an engagement with the first task fleet in the Pacific fleet maneuvers.

Eight destroyers swept the five-mile channel outside Kwajalein, four cruisers deployed to positions in the narrow gap separating Kwajalein lagoon from the open sea, and seaplanes flew anti-submarine patrol.

These 12 ships protect the carriers Princeton and Tarawa, whose planes hope to hit the first's heavy fleet before the two forces make surface contact.

Then the forces will combine for attacks upon Johnston Island and Pearl Harbor.

Task force 38 is under the command of Rear Adm. Frederick W. McMahon, who was skipper of the escort carrier Sumanee in the Pacific in 1943.

Pvt. Robertson Is Graduated

KEESLER FIELD, Miss., Feb 24.—Pvt. Paul K. Robertson, son of Mrs. Floyd A. Rogers, 2205 South Ohio avenue, Sedalia, this week was graduated from one of the world's greatest educational programs—one of the Air Training Command's airplane mechanics training courses at Keesler Field.

The training he received in the mechanics school covered basic airplane and engine mechanic operations. The technical course extended over a period of approximately 16 weeks and included instruction in aircraft electrical systems, engine operation, fuel and oil systems, propellors, structures, instruments and basic inspection. This qualified him for additional specialized training in the maintenance of heavy bombers, cargo planes, jet and rotor aircraft.

To Test Fly Another TF-11

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Howard Hughes, his associates say, is going to test fly another of the TF-11 experimental reconnaissance planes—of the type in which he almost died last summer.

Hughes, who has long tested his company's planes on their initial flights, was forced to crash land the speedy craft last July and spent two months in a hospital. A spokesman said the second plane in the experimental series is ready for tests, and that approval is expected from the army air forces materiel command for Hughes to take it aloft within two weeks.

Russian Magazine Critical of Pyle's Book

MOSCOW, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The Russian magazine Znamya, in an article criticizing the late Ernie Pyle's book, "Here Is Your War," today characterized the American war correspondent as a "reactionary."

R. Orlova, author of the criticism, found fault with Pyle for having a "lack of policy" in his writing, which, Orlova declared, distracted American soldiers from a conscientious and active respect for the fate of their countrymen and other peoples throughout the world.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Nine-year-old Bruce Jennings, found hanging by a woolen scarf from a hook in the cloakroom of an Essex, Md., school, was reported in critical condition today at city hospitals.

Essex police said his teacher discovered the boy unconscious yesterday shortly after she had sent him to the cloakroom as punishment for rapping another third-grader over the head with a book.

Corporal Harry Freund and Patrolman Carroll Huffines said the teacher, Mrs. Audrey J. Edwards, told them she got no answer when she called to him after ten minutes to come out.

She found him with his feet on the floor and his knees buckled, with the scarf wrapped around his throat and one end secured to the coathook, the officers said.

Promise More Steel To Build Box Cars

By the Associated Press

New effects of the nation's long building and shortage of railroad freight carriers were reported today after steel producers promised to allocate more steel to building of new cars.

Industrial and railroad spokesmen agreed that the shortage was a long-term problem that would not be solved immediately.

Meanwhile shipments of fuel oil, newsprint, coal, grain, lumber, farm produce, manufactured products and raw materials were held up at various points because box cars, gondolas and tank cars were insufficient to carry all the tonnage.
